

A program of the Foundation for Teaching Economics offered in Partnership with the Kansas Council for Economic Education.

Rejuvenating Your Economics Classroom

This one-day event in Topeka or Wichita is free for Kansas teachers and designed to help bring back the dynamics of teaching economics in the classroom. Participants will be provided with outlines of the lessons and activities conducted during this one-day program. Sub-pay available.

When (Pick one)

- Wichita - Dec. 4 (Mon.)
WSU Old Town, 238 N. Mead
- Topeka—Dec. 6 (Wed.)
KASB, 1420 SW Arrowhead Rd

Limited sub-pay grants available.

Who

New and experienced high school economics teachers and curriculum specialists. Also, appropriate for middle school teachers and curriculum specialists charged with incorporating economic principles into their class.

What

A one-day program designed to help teachers refresh their economics understanding and to provide teaching methodologies to engage students in group structured activities that will complement a variety of economic principles.

To Do

$25 refundable deposit needed to confirm. Apply now to request sub pay if needed. Limited space & sub grants available so be sure to apply online & submit deposit.

APPLY ONLINE NOW at www.kcee.wichita.edu!

Key Topics / Concepts Covered

Demand and Supply—Teaching the Dynamics and Distortions of the Market

Economic Goals - Understanding Economic Priorities and Policies

The Federal Reserve—Understanding the Role, Policy Tools and Recent Policy Actions of the Federal Reserve

International Trade—How Economists Look at International Trade and Trade Issues