

Register now!

2017 Kansas Social Studies Conference

Kansans Can: Social Studies Leading the Way

November 5-6 (Sun-Mon)

Wichita - Hotel at Old Town Conference Center
Room block for $79/queen or $99/2-Queens
at Hotel at Old Town, reserve by October 21st
(Call 877-265-3869 - as for KS Soc. Studies)

Special Guests:

- Don Gifford, Social Studies Consultant for KSDE, will highlight the Civic Engagement mandate on Sunday and discuss upcoming state assessments late Monday afternoon.
- Dr. Lawrence Paska, Executive Director of the National Council for the Social Studies, will be sharing best practices and experiences from around the county at the reception on Sunday. Dr. Paska will also speak at lunch Monday on the topic of disciplinary literacy.
- Dr. Mark Schug, Professor Emeritus at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee, is a former social studies teacher and a well known speaker, researcher and curriculum writer specializing in integrating economics & financial ed. in K-12 social studies.
- Plus many more great breakout sessions for elementary, middle and high school teachers.

Registration fee: $50.00
($20.00 for pre-service teachers)

Registration fee includes reception Sunday
along with breakfast and lunch Monday

Find more details & online registration at <http://kssocialstudiesconference.com>

Sunday, November 5th

3:00-6:00 pm - Sessions including Civic Engagement and resources for integrating economics K-6 & 7-12.
6:30-7:30 pm - Reception/awards ceremony with drinks & hors d'oeuvres & guest Dr. Lawrence Paska
7:30-8:45 pm - Special screening of Dawn of Day: Stories from the Underground Railroad and Q&A with Brad Burenheide, who is featured in the film.

Monday, November 6th

8:00-8:30 am - Registration/Breakfast
8:30-11:15 am - Breakout Sessions
11:15-12:00 pm - Keynote, Mark Schug
12:00-1:00 pm - Lunch Buffet, Dr. Paska
1:00-3:00 pm - Breakout Sessions
3:00 pm - Closing/Prize Drawings