

A program of the Foundation for Teaching Economics offered in Partnership with the Kansas Council for Economic Education.

Rejuvenating Your Economics Instruction

This awesome one-day (9:00-3:30) event in Topeka or Wichita is free for Kansas teachers and designed to help bring back the dynamics of teaching economics in the classroom. Participants will be provided with amazing lessons and activities with an emphasis on application in the classroom.

OPTIONAL: Graduate credit in econ through Univ. of Co.-Co.Springs—$114.00 total cost

Sub-pay reimbursed or $50 stipend

Travel grants available

When (Pick one)

- Wichita - December 4 (Mon)
WSU Old Town, 238 N. Mead

• Topeka—December 6 (Wed)

KS. Assoc. SB, 1420 SW Arrowhead Rd
(Registration & breakfast at 8:30 am)

Who

New and experienced middle & high school teachers incorporating economic principles into their class.

What

A one-day program designed to help teachers refresh their economics understanding and to provide activities to engage students in group structured activities that will complement a variety of economic principles.

To Do

Apply now online and send in your $25 refundable deposit that will be returned at the event. Looking for a travel grant? Email your request to KCEE@wichita.edu.

Seating is limited so sign up today! Deposits are returned uncashed at the end of the event as long as you attend.

Receive application activities in your classroom for these concepts:

Demand and Supply—Teaching the Dynamics and Distortions of the Market

Economic Goals - Understanding Economic Priorities and Policies

The Federal Reserve—Understanding the Role, Policy Tools and Recent Policy Actions of the Federal Reserve

International Trade—How Economists Look at International Trade and Trade Issues

APPLY ONLINE NOW at www.kcee.wichita.edu!